THE MANIPUR LAND REVENUE AND LAND
REFORMS ACT, 1960

(No. 33 of 1960)

(13th Sep., 1960)

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to land revenue in the State of Manipur and to provide for certain measures of land reforms:

Be it enacted by the Parliament in the Eleventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:

NOTES

In the preamble the words “the Union Territory of Manipur” were substituted by the words “State of Manipur”, by the Manipur (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1972, published in the Manipur Gazette dated 21-1-1972.

The Act is in consonance with the agrarian policy of the Government and in order that constitutional validity of the Act or any provision thereof may not be questioned in future, the constitution (Seventeenth Amendment Act, 1964), added the Act to the Schedule to the constitution as Entry No. 63. Article 31-B of the Constitution provided that even if the Act of any provision thereof infringes the fundamental rights guaranteed by Part III of the Constitution, the Act shall, subject to the power of the parliament to repeal or amend it, continue in force.

PART-I
CHAPTER-I
PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement: - (1) This Act may be called the Manipur Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1960.

NOTES

Section 2:- In this section, clause (a) which defined the word "Administrator" has been omitted; in Clause (c) for the words and figures "2.50 acres, the words 'one hectare' has been substituted; in clause (h) for the words and figures "7.5 acres", the words "three hectares" have been substituted ; in Clause (i) for the words 'Central Government", the words "State Government" have been substituted; in Clause (t) after putting a comma after the words "Agricultural workers" the words "ex- Serviceman" has been substituted in Clause (v), the words "or under the system generally known as 'bhag', 'adhi or 'barga' have been omitted; Clause (i) for the words 'Central Government', the words "State Government" have substituted; in clause (t) after putting a comma after the words 'Agricultural workers' the words' ex-Serviceman' has been substituted in Caluse (v) the words 'or under the system generally known as 'bhag', 'adhi or 'barga' have been omitted; Clause (vv) has been inserted vide Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976, published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976. Clause (ii) was inserted vide Manipur Act No. 10 of 1976, which defines "District Council".

By the Manipur Act No. 13 of 1979 the Clause (vv) has been inserted, but ironically enough the Clause (vv) was already there defining the word 'Tribunal' which does not appear to have been substituted. The original Clause (vv) was inserted by Order No. 3/9/72 Act/D, dated 21-1-1972 of the Governor of Manipur under Section 81 of the North Eastern Areas (Re-organisation) Act, 1971, reads as follows:

MANIPUR LAND REV. & LAND REFORMS ACT

"(vv) Tribunal means any officer appointed by the State Government to be the Tribunal for the purpose of this Act",

Now there appears to be two definitions of the words 'Tribunal',

PART II

NOTES

Section 5.- In this section wherever the words “State Government” appear these were substituted for the word “Administrator” by the Manipur (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1972, published in the Manipur Gazette dated 21-1-1972.

5. Settlement Officers.- The Officers specified in terms (c), (f) and (g) of Section 4 shall have power to take cognizance of all matters connected with the survey of land the settlement of revenue rates and the preparation and maintenance of land records and other registers and shall exercise all such powers and perform all such powers and perform all such duties as may be prescribed by any general or special order of the State Government published in the Official Gazette.

NOTES

Section 6.- In this section wherever the words ‘State Government’ appear these were substituted for the word “Administrator” by the Manipur (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1972.

In the case Apambi Kabuini v. the Chief Commissioner, AIR 1965 Manipur 3, it was held that the Administrator was also a Revenue Officers, By virtue of the Manipur Adaptation Order of 1972, the words ‘Administrator’ has been substituted.

6. Subordinate of revenue Officers,- (1) All revenue officers shall be subordinate to the Revenue Commissioner and all officers in the district or a sub-division shall be subordinate to the deputy commissioner or the sub-divisional officer, as the case may be.
- (2) All revenue officers in the settlement department shall be subordinate to the Director of Settlement and Land Records.

NOTES

Section 7.- The sub-section (2) was inserted by Manipur Act 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976, and the original section was numbered as sub-section (1) and for the words “State Government” appearing therein was substituted by the ‘Revenue Commissioner’.

7. Combination of officers.- It shall be lawful for the State Government to appoint one and the same person to any two or more of the office and also to confer on any officer of the Government or any of the powers and duties of any of revenue officers including the deputy commissioner.
8. Notification of appointment- All appointments made under this Chapter except appointments of revenue inspectors, supervisor kanungos, zilladarz, mandals and other village officers and servants shall be notified in the official Gazette.

NOTES

Section 9.- In this section for the words “and village accountants” the words “Supervisor kanungos, zilladarz, mandals” were substituted by Manipur Act 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

9. Seals- The State Government shall, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, specify the revenue officers who shall use a seal and also the size and description of the seal which each such officer shall use.

CHAPTER III LAND AND LAND REVENUE

10. Title of Government to lands, etc.- (1) All lands, public roads, lanes and paths and bridges, ditches, dikes and fences on or the same, the beds of rivers, streams, nallahs, lakes and tanks and all canals and water courses, and all standing and flowing water and all rights in or over the same or appertaining thereto, which are not the property of any person are and are hereby declared to be the property of any person are and are hereby declared to be the property of the Government.
- (2) Unless it is otherwise expressly provided in the terms of a grant made by the Government, the right to mines, minerals and products shall vest in the Government, and it shall have all the powers necessary for the proper enjoyment of such rights.
- (3) Where any or any right in or over any property is claimed by or on behalf of the Government or by any person as against the Government and the claim is disputed, such dispute shall be decided by the deputy commissioner whose order shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be final.
- (4) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (3) or in appeal or revision therefrom may institute a civil suit to contest the order within a period of six months from the date of such order, and the decision of the civil court shall be binding on the parties.

NOTES

Section 11.- This section is very general in scope, which vest the property in all land viz, which are not the property of any person, in the Government. (Ningombam Parijat Singh v. Chief Commissioner, AIR 1969 Manipur 79).

11. Right to trees, forest etc.- (1) The right to all trees, jungles or other natural, products growing on land set apart for forest reserves and to all trees, brush-wood, jungle or other natural product shall be preserved or disposed of the people in the area with regard to the user of the natural products.
- (2) All trees or other natural products growing on or by the side of any public road or path vest in the Government.

NOTES

Section 12- The sub-section (2) was substituted vide Manipur Act No:13 of 1976 published in the Assam Gazette dated 24-5-1976 and the entire sub-section (2) read as follows:

“(2) All road-side trees which have been planted and reared by or under the orders or at the expense of the Government and all trees which have been planted and reared at the expense of local authorities by the side of any road belonging to the Government vest in the Government”.

12. Assignment of land for special purposes.- Subject to rules made in this behalf under this Act, the Deputy Commissioner may set apart land belonging to the Government for pasturage for the village cattle, for forest reserves or for any other purpose.

13.A (1) The Deputy Commissioner with the previous sanction of the State Government may, by notification published in the prescribed manner declare any collection of water, running or still, to be a fishery, and no right in any fishery so declared shall be deemed to have been acquired by any persons or group of persons, either before or after the commencement of this Act, except as provided in the rules framed under sub-section (2).

(2) The State Government may, without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of Section 98, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this section and such rules shall be published in official Gazette.

NOTES

Section 14.- It was held in the case Koijam Ibotombi Singh v. Chief Commissioner, AIR 1965 Manipur 35, that this section is not ultra vires the Constitution. In the case Aribam Tuleswar Sharma v. Irengbam Yaima Singh, AIR 1965 Manipur 39, it was observed that accepting the dictionary meaning of Industry includes ‘business’ as because the word ;Industry has not been defined in the Act. The words ‘State Government’ as appearing in this section was substituted for the words ‘Administrator’ by Adaptation Order of 1972 and as such in the case Tronglaobi Pisciculture Co-operative Society v. Chief Commissioner, (AIR 1969 Manipur 84) it was held that an order of allotment passed by the Administrators directly was held to be held that an order of allotment passed by the Administrators directly was held to be illegal. It is Deputy Commissioner alone who can allot lands.

15. Unauthorised occupation of land.- (1) Any person who occupies or continues to occupy any land belonging to Government without lawful authority shall be regarded as a trespasser and may be summarily evicted therefrom by the competent authority and any building or other construction erected or anything deposited on such land, if not removed within such reasonable time as such authority may from time to time fix for the purpose, shall be liable to be forfeited to the Government and to be disposed of in such manner as the competent authority may direct:

Provided that the competent authority may, in lieu of ordering the forfeiture of any such building or other construction, order the demolition of the whole or any part thereof.

(2) Such trespasser shall also be liable by way of penalty to pay a sum which may extend to six times the annual assessment on such land as may be specified by the competent authority and such sum shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

(3) Upon payment of the penalty referred to in sub-section (2), the trespasser shall have the right of tending, gathering and removing any ungathered crops.

16. Liability of land to land revenue.- (1) All lands, to whatever purpose applied, are liable to payment of land revenue to the Government.
- (2) The State Government may exempt any land from the liability of such payment by means of a special grant or contract or in accordance with any law for the time being in force or the rules made under this Act.
17. Alluvial land- All alluvial lands, newly formed islands, or abandoned river beds, which vest under any law for the time being in force in any holder of land shall be subject in respect of liability to land revenue to the same privileges, conditions and restrictions as are applicable to the original holding by virtue of which such lands, islands or river beds vest in the said holder, but no revenue shall be leviable in respect of any such lands islands or river beds unless the area of the same exceeds two-fifths of a hectare.

NOTES

Section 17.- In this section for the words “one acre” wherever they occur, the words “two fifths of a hectare” were substituted vide Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

18. Land revenue in case of diluvion.- Every holder of land paying land revenue in respect thereof shall be entitled, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, to a decrease of assessment, if any portion thereof not being less than two-fifths of a hectare in extent is lost by diluvion.

NOTES

Section 18.- In this section for the words “one acre” wherever they occur, the words ‘two fifths of a hectare’ were substituted by Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

19. Assessment of land to land revenue. – (1) The assessment of land revenue on any land shall be made or deemed to have been made with respect to the use of the land –

- (a) for purposes of agriculture,
- (b) for industrial or commercial purposes,
- (c) as sites for dwelling houses, and
- (d) for any other purpose.

(2) Where land assessed for use for any purpose is diverted to any other purpose, the land revenue payable upon such land shall, notwithstanding that the term for which the assessment may have been fixed has not expired, be liable to be altered and assessed at a different rate in accordance with rules made under this Act.

20. Diversion of land – (1) If any person holding land for any purpose wishes to divert such land or any part thereof to any other purpose except agriculture, he shall apply for permission to the competent authority which may, subject to the provisions of this section and to the rules made under this Act, refuse permission or grant it on such conditions as it may think fit.

- (2) Permission to divert may be refused by the competent authority only on the ground that the diversion is likely to cause a public nuisance or that it is not in the interest of the general public or that the holder is unable or unwilling to comply with the conditions that may be imposed under sub-section(3).
- (2) Conditions may be imposed on diversion for the following objects and no others, namely, in order to secure the public health, safety and convenience, and in the case of land which is to be used as building sites in order to secure, in addition, that the dimensions, arrangement and accessibility of the sites are adequate for the health and convenience of occupiers or are suitable to the locality.
- (3) If any land has been diverted without permission by the holder or by any other person with or without the consent of the holder, the competent authority, on receiving information thereof, may impose on the person responsible for the diversion a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees, and may proceed in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) an if am application for permission to divert had been made.
- (4) If any land has been diverted in contravention of an order passed or of a condition imposed under any of the foregoing sub-section, the competent authority may serve a notice on the person responsible for such contravention, directing him, within a reasonable period to be stated in the notice, to use the land for its original purpose or to observe the condition; and such notice may require such person to remove any structure, to fill up any excavation, or to take such other steps as may be required in order that the land may be used for its original purpose, or that the condition may be satisfied. The competent authority may also impose on such person a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees for such contravention, and a further penalty not exceeding four rupees for each day during which such contravention continues.

Explanation. - 'Diversion' in this section means using land assessed to one purpose for any other purpose, but using land for the purpose of agriculture where it is assessed with reference to any other purpose shall not be deemed to be diversion.

21. Remission or suspension of revenue on failure of crops- The State Government may, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf under this Act, grant a remission or suspension of land revenue in year in which crops have failed in any area.
22. Responsibility for payment of land revenue.- (1) The following persons shall be primarily liable for the payment of land revenue assessed on land, namely:
 - (a) the person to whom the land belongs; and
 - (b) the tenant or any other person in possession of the land, provided that such tenant or other person shall be entitled to credit from the owner of the land for the amount paid by him.

(2) Where there are two or more persons liable to pay land revenue under sub-section (1), all of them shall be jointly and severally liable for its payment.
23. Receipt for land revenue.- every revenue officer receiving by him give a written receipt for the same.

CHAPTER IV SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT OF LAND REVENUE

24. Definition of 'revenue survey', 'settlement' and 'term of settlement'.- The operation carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter in order to determine or revise the land revenue payable on the lands in any local area called a 'revenue survey', the results of the operations are called a 'settlement' and the period during which such results are to be in force is called the 'term of settlement'.
25. Inquiry into profits of agriculture.- (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the State Government shall take steps to institute and shall cause to be constantly maintained, in accordance with rules made under this Act, and inquiry into the profits of agriculture and into the value of land used for agricultural and non agricultural purposes.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the profits of agriculture, the following matters shall be taken into account in estimating the cost of cultivation, namely:
- (a) the depreciation of stock and buildings;
 - (b) the money equivalent of the labour and supervisor by the cultivator and his family;
 - (c) all other expenses usually incurred in the cultivation of the land which is under inquiry; and
 - (d) interest on the cost of buildings and stock, on all expenditure for seed and manure and on the cost of agricultural operation paid for in cash.
26. Revenue Survey. - Whenever the State Government thinks it expedient so to do, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct the revenue survey of any local area with a view to the settlement of the land revenue and to the preparation of a record of rights connected therewith or the revision of any existing settlement or record of rights.

NOTES

Section 26- The word 'it' was substituted for the word "he" and the words "with the approval of the Government" as occurring in the earlier section were deleted by Manipur Act No.13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

27. Power to require assistance from land-holders.- A survey officer deputed to conduct or take part in any revenue survey may, by special order or by general notice to be published in the prescribed manner, require the attendance of holders of lands to assist in the measurement or classification of the lands to which the revenue survey extends and, when hired labour is employed for purpose incidental to the revenue survey, may assess and apportion the cost thereof on the lands surveyed, for collection as land revenue due on such lands.
28. Survey numbers and villages.- Subject to the rules made in this behalf under this Act, the survey officer may-
- (a) divide the lands to which the revenue survey extends into survey numbers and group the survey numbers into villages; and

- (b) recognize the existing survey numbers, reconstitute them or form new survey numbers.
29. Division of survey numbers into sub-division.- The survey officer may sub-divide survey numbers into as many sub-divisions as may be required in the manner prescribed.
30. Determination of revenue rates.- The State Government may at any time direct determination or the revision of the revenue-rates for all lands in any area of which a revenue survey has been made.
31. Preparation of statistical and fiscal records- It shall be the duty of the survey officer of the settlement officer on the occasion of making or revising a settlement of land revenue to prepare a register to be called the "Settlement register", showing the area and assessment of each survey number, with any other particulars that may be prescribed, and other records in this behalf by the State Government.
32. Revenue-rates how determined- For the purpose of determining the revenue-rates, the settlement officer may divide any area into units and in forming such units, he shall have regard to the physical features, the agricultural and economic conditions and trade facilities and communications; and shall then determine the revenue-rates for different classes of lands in each unit in the manner and according to the principles prescribed and in particular, in the case of agricultural land, to the sale prices of land and to the principal monies on mortgages and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held.
33. Publication of table of revenue-rate-(1) The settlement officer shall prepare a table of revenue rates in the prescribed manner for the prescribed period.
- (2) Any person objecting to an entry in the table of revenue-rates may present a petition in writing to the settlement officer within the prescribed period and the settlement officer shall consider such objection after giving a hearing to the objector.
- (3) The settlement officer shall submit the table of revenue -rates to the State Government together with a summary of objections, if any, this decisions on such objections and a statement of the grounds in support of the proposals.
34. Confirmation of the table of revenue-rates-(1) The Government may confirm, with modification, if any, the table of revenue rates submitted by the settlement officer.
- (2) The table of revenue -rates confirmed under sub-section (1) shall be finally published in the official Gazette.

NOTES

Section 34.- The Sub-section (1) was substituted vide Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976 and the substituted sub-section (1) read as follows:

"(1) The Administrator may confirm the table of revenue rates submitted to him by the Settlement Officer with such modification if any, as he may consider necessary".

35. Rates of revenue to form part of settlement register.- The table of revenue rates published under Section 34 shall be incorporated in and form part of the settlement register of the village.

36. Introduction of revenue-rates, - When the revenue-rates are determined under this Chapter in respect of any area, such rates shall take effect from the beginning of the year next after the date of final publication of the table of revenue-rates under Section 34.

37. Duration of revenue-rates.- (1) When the table of revenue-rates for any area has been finally published, the rates specified therein shall remain in force for a period of thirty years.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1)-

(a) revenue rates may be altered or revised in any area after the expiry of every ten years from the date on which the table of revenue-rates was introduced in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed;

(b) The Government may extend the term of settlement if the circumstances of a local area be inexpedient:

Provided that the term of settlement so extended shall in no case exceed the period of ten years.

NOTES

Section 37.- The clause (b) of sub-section (2) of this section was substituted by Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 which read as follows:

“When the circumstances of a local area are such that a fresh determination of the revenue rates is, in the opinion of the Administrator inexpedient, he may extend the term of settlement by such further period as he may think necessary”.

38. Assessment on Holdings.- (1) The settlement officer shall calculate the assessment on each holding in accordance with the revenue-rates confirmed and finally published under Section 34 and such assessment shall be the fair assessment:

Provided that the revenue of any holding, irrespective of its size, shall not be less than rupees two.

(2) The settlement officer shall have the power to make fair assessment on all lands whatsoever to which the revenue survey extends, whether such lands are held with liability to pay full land-revenue or land-revenue at concessional rates or are held revenue-free.

(3) The fair assessment of all lands shall be calculated in accordance with rules made in this behalf and having regard to the following principles, namely-

(a) no regard shall be had to any claim to hold land on privileged terms;

(b) regard shall be had in the case of agricultural land to the profits of agricultural land to the profits of agriculture, to the consideration paid for leases, to the sale prices of land and to the principal monies on mortgages, and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held;

(c) where any improvement has been effected at any holding for the purpose of agriculture by or at the expense of the holder thereof, the fair assessment of such holding shall be fixed as if the improvement had not been made.

NOTES

Section 38. - The proviso at the end of sub-section (1) was added by the Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

39.- Additional assessment for water advantages.- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, the State Government may direct that any land in respect of which the rate of revenue has been determined shall be liable to be assessed to additional land-revenue during the term of settlement for additional advantages accruing to it from water received on account of irrigation works or improvements in existing Irrigation works completed after the table of revenue-rates came into force and not effected by or at the expense of the holder of the land.

40.- Continuance of survey operations and rates in force at commencement of the Act.- Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter, all survey operations commenced under any law for the time being in force and continuing at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been commenced and to be continuing under the provisions of this Chapter, and all revenue-rates in force at such commencement shall be deemed to have been determined and introduced in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and shall remain in force until the introduction at any time, notwithstanding anything contained in this section 37.

41. Power of Deputy Commissioner to correct errors, etc.- (1) The power and duties exercisable by the officers referred to in Section 6 may also be exercised, during the term of settlement, by the deputy Commissioner or such other revenue officer as may be specified by the State Government for the purpose by notification in the official Gazette.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner may at any time during the term of settlement correct any error in the area or the assessment of any survey number or sub-division due to a mistake of survey or arithmetical miscalculation:

Provided that no arrear of revenue shall become payable by reason of such correction.

CHAPTER V LAND RECORDS

42. Preparation of record of rights- It shall be the duty of the survey officer to prepare a record of rights for each village showing the area of each survey number and other particular and any other record or register, in accordance with the rules made under this Act.

43. Publication of the record of rights.- (1) When a record of rights has been prepared, the survey officer shall publish a draft of record in such manner and for such period as may be prescribed and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made to any entry therein or to any omission there from during the period of such publication.

(2) When all objections have been considered and disposed of in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, the survey officer shall cause the record to be finally published in the prescribed manner.

(3) Every entry in the record of rights as finally published shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be correct.

NOTES

Section 44.- This section was omitted vide Manipur Act No.13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976 and read as follows:

“44 Jurisdiction of Civil Courts.- The Civil Courts shall have jurisdiction to decide any dispute to which the Government is not a party relating to any right or entry which the Government is not a party relating to any right or entry which is recorded in the records of rights”

In the case of Tronglaobi Pisciculture Co-operative Society Ltd.v. Chief Commissioner, (AIR 1969 Manipur 18), it was held that a writ petition was not barred by Section 159 of the Act. (now after omission of this section the relevancy of the decision in the context and under the circumstances can be looked into).

45. Correction of bonafide mistake in register- The survey Officer may, on application made to him in this behalf or on his own motion, within one year from the date of final publication of the record of rights, correct any entry in such record which he is satisfied has been made owing to a bonafide mistake.

46. Register of mutation- (1) There shall be maintained for every village a register of mutations in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Any person acquiring by succession, survivorship, inheritance, partition, purchase, exchange, gift or otherwise any right in land or where such person acquiring the right is a minor or otherwise disqualified, his guardian or other person having charge of his property, shall report his acquisition of such right to the competent authority shall give at once a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form for such report to the person making it,

(3) The competent authority shall enter the substance of every report made to it under Sub-section (2) in the register of mutations and also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any right of the kind mentioned in sub section (2) which it has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report has not been made under the said sub-section and, at the same time, shall post up a complete copy of the entry in a conspicuous place in the village and shall give written intimation to all persons appearing from the record of rights or the register of mutations to be interested in the mutations and to any other person whom it has reasons to believe to be interested therein.

(4) Should any objection to any entry made under sub-section (3) in the register of mutations be made either orally or in writing to the competent authority, the particulars shall be entered in the register of disputed cases and the competent authority shall be entered in the register of disputed cases and the competent authority shall at once give a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form for the objection to the person making it.

(5) The objections made under sub-section (4) shall be decided on the basis of possession by the competent authority and orders disposing of objections entered in the register of disputed cases shall be recorded in the register of mutations by the competent authority:

Provided that a person, who does not acquire any right under sub-section (2) or by mortgage or lease, shall not make objection on the basis of possession.

(6) After the entries in the register of mutations have been tested and found correct, the entries shall be transferred to the record of rights and shall be certified by such officer as may be prescribed in this behalf.

NOTES

Section 46- In sub-section (2) for the word 'mortgage', the word 'exchange' was substituted and in the sub-section (5) the proviso was inserted vide Manipur Act No.13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

It was observed (in the case Bishnu Prosad Upadhyaya v A.K. Biswas, 1962 Manipur Law Journal, Civil Writ application No 10 of 1961 decided on 19-2-61) that orders in mutation proceedings can be passed only on the basis of possession and not on title.

47. Penalty for neglect to furnish information.- The Deputy Commissioner may, if he is of opinion that any person has willfully neglected to make the report required by Section 46 within the prescribed period impose on such person a penalty not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

48. Assistance in preparation of maps.- Subject to the rules made under this Act:

(a) any Revenue Officer may for the purpose of preparing or revising any map or plan required for or in connection with any record or register under this chapter, exercise any of the powers of the Survey Officer under Section 27 except the power of assessing the cost of hired labour; and

(b) any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Sub-Divisional Officer may assess the cost of preparation or revision such maps or plans and all expenses incidental thereto and such of costs and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

49. Certified copies.- Certified copies of entries in the record of rights may be granted by such officers and on payment of such fees as may prescribed.

50. Maps and other records open to inspection.- Subject to such and on payment of such fees, if any, as may be prescribed, all maps and land records shall be open inspection by the public during office hours, and certified extracts therefrom or certified copies thereof may be given to all persons applying for the same.

51. Power to transfer duty of maintaining maps and records to Settlement Officer.- When a local area is under settlement, duty of maintaining the maps and records may, under the orders of the State Government, be transferred from the Deputy Commissioner to the Settlement Officer.

CHAPTER V-A PARTITION

51-A. Definitions- For the purpose of this Chapter:

(a) 'fragment' means a holding of less than one hectare of land in area;

(b) 'holding' means the aggregate area of land by a person as a landowner;

(d) 'partition' means the division of a holding into two or more such holding each separately liable for the revenue assessed thereon.

51-B. Petition each partition,- (1) A landowner may at any time, by applying in writing to the Deputy Commissioner, claim partition of the holding.

(2) On receipt of such an application the Deputy Commissioner shall serve notice on all such records landowners of the land as have not joined in the application, requiring them to raise objections, if any within a prescribed period:

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner may, if he thinks it necessary, publish a proclamation as may be prescribed period:

(3) If any objection preferred under sub-section (2) raises any question of title which has not been already determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, the deputy Commissioner shall stay the proceedings for such time as, in his opinion, is sufficient to admit of a said being instituted in the civil court of the objection:

(4) The Deputy Commissioner staying the proceeding under sub-section (3) shall make an order requiring the objector, or if it any reason he deems it more equitable, may disallow the objection, or dismiss the application, as the case may be.

(5) If the objection preferred under sub-section (2) does not raise any question of title, the Deputy Commissioner shall dispose of it himself, unless for any reason he thinks it fit to require that it be submitted to a civil court for adjudication in which event the provisions of sub-section (3) and sub-section (4) shall apply to the objection.

51-C. Partition in accordance with finding of civil court- The Deputy Commissioner shall be guided by the decision of the civil court of competent jurisdiction on the question of title and the proceedings stayed under sub-section (3) and sub-section (5) of Section 51-B shall be disposed of when the decision of the civil court is communicated to the Sub-Deputy Collector by an interested party and after notice has been given to the other parties.

51-D. Restriction on partition.- The provisions of this Chapter shall, in relation to holdings unused for agricultural purposes, be subject to Section 153, Section 154 and Section 155 for prevention of fragmentation.

51-E Partition of land held in severally or in comma. - (1) Where there are no lands held in comma, the lands held in severally by the applicant for partition shall be declared a separate holding and shall be separately assessed to land revenue.

(2) Where some of the lands are held in common, the Sub-Deputy Collector shall make such division as may secure to the applicant his fair portion of the common lands, and the portion of the common lands falling by the partition to the share of the applicant shall be added to the land held by him in severalty and the aggregate thus formed shall be declared a separate holding and shall be separately assessed to land revenue.

(3) Where all the lands are held in common the Deputy Commissioner shall make such a partition as may secure to the applicant his fair share of the holding, and the land allotted to him shall be declared a separate holding and shall be separately assessed to land revenue.

Provided that in making partition under this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall give effect to any transfer of lands held in severalty, forming part of the holding, agreed to by the parties and made before the order for partition, 51-F. Special provisions for building- If, in making a partition, it is necessary to include in the holding assigned to one share the land occupied by a dwelling house, or other buildings, of permanent nature, in possession of another co-share, that other co-share shall be allowed to retain in with any building thereon on condition of his paying a reasonable ground-rent for it to the share in whose portion it may fall.

51-G. Special provisions for places of worship and burial grounds,- (1) Places of worship and burial grounds, held in common previous to the order of partition of a holding, shall continue to be so held, unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves.

(2) In case where the parties agree among themselves they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and their statement shall be filed with agree among themselves.

(2) In case where the parties agree among themselves they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and their statement shall be filed with record.

51-H Special provisions for tanks, wells water courses and embankments.-

(1) Tanks, wells, water courses and embankments shall be considered as attached to land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

(2) Where from the extent, situation or construction of any such work, it is found necessary that it should continue to be joint property of landowners to two or more of the holdings in which the landowners of each holding may make use of the work, and the proportion of the charges for repairs to be borne by them respectively, and the manner in which the profits if any, derived from the work, are to be divided.

51-I. Stay of partition in certain cases.- If at any stages of the proceedings notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter, there appears to be any reason for stopping the partition, the Deputy Commissioner may, of his own motion, stay the partition and may also order the proceedings to be proceedings to be quashed.

51-J Determination of revenue rate and alteration of record of rights- After passing the order for partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine the amount of land revenue to be paid by each portion of the divided holding, and shall make the necessary changes in the record of rights:

Provided that the landowners of each of the new holdings shall continue to be jointly and severally liable for arrears, if any, of land revenue on the old holdings due before the order for partition, and the landowners who are benefited by the special provisions under Section 51- H and Section 51-I shall be jointly and severally liable for land revenue on the common holdings.

51-K Execution of partition and proclamation.- As soon as may be, after the order for partition the Sub-Deputy Collector shall-

(a) make the partition under his personal supervision or under the personal supervision of a subordinate revenue officer authorized by him, unless the parties agree to make the partition themselves: and

(b) deliver to the several sharers possession of the separate lands allotted to them, and for this purpose may, if necessary, summarily eject any landowners who may refuse to vacate the same :

Provided that in the case of land use for agricultural purposes, the partition will take effect from the beginning of the agricultural year next after the date of the order for partition;

(c) on completion of a partition, the deputy commissioner shall publish a proclamation of the fact at his office and at some conspicuous place on which all the new holdings of which they originally from a partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall publish a proclamation of the fact at his office and at some conspicuous place on which all the new holdings of which they originally form a part.

51-L. Cost.- The Deputy Commissioner may, in accordance with the rules made under Section 98, require the parties or any of the parties to pay the cost of partition.

51-M. Appeal.- An appeal against the decision of the Deputy Commissioner making the partition will lie to tribunal within ninety days from the date on which the partition takes effect.

NOTES

Chapter V-A. This chapter was inserted by the Manipur Act No.13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

52. Determination of village boundaries.- The boundaries of villages, survey numbers, sub-divisions and fields shall be fixed and all disputes relating thereto shall be determined by survey officers or by such other officers as may be appointed by the State Government for the purpose, in accordance with rules made in this behalf.

53. Effect to settlement of boundary- The settlement of a boundary under this chapter shall be determinative:-

- (a) of the proper position of the boundary line or boundary marks, and
- (b) Of the rights of the landholders on either side of the boundary fixed in respect of the land adjudged to appertain, or not to appertain, to their respective holdings.

(2) Where a boundary has been so fixed, the Deputy Commissioner may at any time summarily evict any landholder who is wrongfully in possession of any land which has been adjudged in the settlement of a boundary not to appertain to his holding or to the holding of any person through or under whom he claims.

54. Construction and repair of boundary marks.- It shall be lawful for any survey officer authorized in this behalf to specify or cause to be constructed, laid out, maintained or repaired, boundary marks of villages or survey numbers or sub-divisions and to assess all charges incurred thereby on the holders or others having an interest therein.

55. Description of boundary marks.- The boundary marks shall be of such description and shall be constructed, laid out, maintained or repaired in such manner and shall be of such dimensions and materials as may, subject to rules made under this Act, be determined by the Deputy Commissioner or other officer appointed for the purpose.

56. Responsibility for maintaining boundary marks- Every land holder shall be responsible for the maintenance and good repair of the boundary marks of his holding and for any charge reasonably incurred on account of the same by the revenue officers in case of alteration, removal or disrepair. It shall be the duty of the village officers and servants to prevent the destruction or unauthorised alteration of the village boundary mark.

57. Deputy Commissioner to have charge of boundary marks.- After the introduction of survey and settlement in a district, the charge of the boundary marks shall devolve on the Deputy Commissioner and it shall be his duty to take measures for their construction, laying out, maintenance and repair.

58. Penalty for injuring boundary marks.- Any person willfully erasing removing or injuring a boundary mark shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding fifty rupees as the competent authority may impose.

CHAPTER VII
REALISATION OF LAND REVENUE AND OTHER PUBLIC DEMANDS

59. Land revenue to be first charge.- Land revenue assessed on any land shall be the first charge on that land, on crops, rent and profits thereof.

60. Payment of land revenue.- Land revenue shall be payable at such times in such instalments, to such persons, and at such places, as may be prescribed.

61. Arrear of land revenue.- (1) Any installment of land revenue or part thereof which is not paid on the due date shall become an arrear of land revenue and the persons responsible for the payment become defaulters.

(2) A statement of account certified by the Sub-Deputy Collector shall, for the purpose of this chapter be conclusive of the existence of the arrear, of its amounts and of the persons responsible for the payment become defaulters.

(2) A statement of account certified by the Sub-Deputy Collector shall, for the purpose of this Chapter be conclusive of the existence of the arrear, of its amount in separate proceedings before the competent authority.

62. Recovery of arrears.- An arrear of land revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely:

(a) by serving a written notice of demand on the defaulter;

(b) by distraint and sale of the defaulter's movable property, including the produce of the land;

(c) by attachment and sale of the defaulter's immovable property.

63. Notice of demand:- The form and contents of the notice of demand and the officers by whom such notice shall be issued shall be such as may be prescribed.

64. Distraint and sale of movable property- (1) The distraint and sale of the movable property of a defaulter shall be made by such officers or class of officers in such manner and in accordance with such procedure, as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to authorized the distraint or sale of any property which, under the Code of Civil procedure, 1908, is exempt from attachment or sale in execution of a decree or of any article set aside exclusively for religious use.

65. Sale of immovable property.- (1) When the Deputy Commissioner is of opinion that the processes referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of Section 62 are not sufficient for the recovery of an arrear, he may, in addition to or instead of any of any of those processes, cause the land in respect of which such arrear is due to be attached and sold in the prescribed manner.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner may also cause the right, title and interest of defaulter in any other immovable property to be similarly attached and sold.

66. Notice of sale.- (1) Before effecting the sale of any land or other immovable property under the provisions of this Chapter, the Deputy Commissioner or other officer empowered in this behalf shall issue such notices and proclamations in such form, in such manner and containing such particulars, as may be prescribed; the notices and proclamations shall also be published in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) A copy of every notice or proclamation issued sub-section (1) shall be served on the defaulter.

67. Sale to be by auction.- All sales of property, movable or immovable, under this Chapter shall be by public auction held in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

68. Prohibition to bid at auction.- No officer having any duty to perform in connection with any such sale and no person employed by or sub-ordinate to such officer shall, either directly or indirectly, bid or acquire any property except on behalf of the Government.

69. Sale of perishables.- Perishable articles shall be sold by auction with the least possible delay and such shall be finally concluded by the office conducting the sale.

70. Sale not to be excessive.- Every sale of property, movable or immovable, under the provisions of this chapter shall, as far as may be practicable, be proportionate to the amount of the arrear of land revenue to be recovered together with the interest thereon and the expenses of attachment and sale.

71. Deposit by purchaser of immovable property.- (1) In all cases of immovable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately 25 percent of the amount of his bid, and the balance within fifteen days of the date of sale.

72. Failure to make deposit- In default of the payment of deposit referred to in Section 71, the property shall be put up for re-sale and the expenses incurred in connection with the first sale shall be borne by the defaulting bidder.

(2) In default of payment of payment of the balance of the bid amount within the period prescribed in Section 71, the deposit after defraying therefrom the expenses of the sale shall be forfeited to the Government and the property shall be re-sold.

(3) Where the proceeds of the re-sale are less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall also be recoverable from him in the same as an arrear of land revenue.

73. Setting aside sale.- Where immovable property has been sold under this Chapter, the defaulter, or any person owning such property or holding an interest, may, at any time, within thirty days of the Deputy Commissioner to have the sale set aside-

(a) on the ground of some material irregularity of mistake or fraud resulting in substantial loss or injury to him, or

(b) on his depositing in the Deputy Commissioner's Office the amount of the arrear specified in the proclamation of sale, the cost of the sale and for payment to the purchase a sum equal to five percent of the purchase money.

74. Confirmation of sale.- If on the expiration of 30days from the date of sale of any immovable property or of the further period, if any, allowed under Section 73, no application has been made for setting aside the sale, or if any such application has been made and rejected, the Deputy Commissioner shall make an order confirming the sale unless, for reasons to be recorded, the Deputy Commissioner sets aside the sale notwithstanding that no application therefore has been made.

75. Refunds.- (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall order the refund and payment to the purchaser, of-

(a) the amounts deposited by him under Section 71: and

(b) the sum equal to 5 percent of the purchase money deposited under clause (b) of Section 73;

if the sale is not confirmed or is set aside.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner shall order the refund and payment of all monies deposited under clause (b) of Section 73 to the person who made the deposit, if the sale is confirmed;

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner may set off the whole or any part of such monies against any arrear of land revenue or any other amount recoverable as an arrear of land revenue, which may be outstanding against the person who made the deposit.

76. 78. Liability of certified purchaser.- The person who has purchased any land and to whom a certified of purchase has been granted shall not be liable for the land revenue in respect of the land for any period prior to the date of the sale.

79. Precautionary measures in certain cases.- When the crop of any land or any portion of the same is sold, mortgaged or otherwise disposed of, the Deputy Commissioner may, if he thinks it necessary, prevent its being removed from the land until the demand for the payment of the same has arrived or not.

80. Recovery of other public demands- The following monies may be recovered under this Act in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue namely:

(a) rent, fees and royalties due to the Government for the use or occupation of land or water or any product of land;

(b) all monies falling due to the Government under any grant, lease or contract which provides that they shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue;

(c) all sums declared by this Act or any other law for the time being in force to be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

CHAPTER

PROCEDURE OF REVENUE OFFICERS: APPEALS AND REVISIONS

81. Revenue officers to be courts.- (1) A Revenue Officer while exercising power under this Act or any other law for the time being in force to inquire into or decide any question arising for determination between the Government and any person or between parties to any proceedings, shall be a Revenue Court.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to limit or otherwise after the inherent power of the Revenue Court to make such orders, as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Revenue Court.

NOTES

Section 81- The Chief Commissioner as a Revenue Court had jurisdiction to consider the merits of the petition under Section 5 of the Limitation Act to condone the delay, if any, (Ningombam Parijat Singh v Chief Commissioner, AIR 1969 Manipur 79).

This section do not confer any power on the Court but only indicate that the court has power to pass order for the ends of justice and to prevent an abuse of the process of the court. (Reference may be made to the decision Manoharlal v.Seth Hiralal, AIR 1962 S.C 527.)

82. Place of hearing- Except for reasons to be recorded in writing, no Revenue Officer shall inquire into or hear any case at any place outside the limits of his jurisdiction:

Provided that a Sub-Divisional Officer may inquire into or hear any case at the headquarters of the district to which he is appointed.

83. Power to enter upon and survey land.- All Revenue Officers and persons acting under their orders may enter upon and survey and land demarcate boundaries and do all other acts necessary for the time being in force and in so doing, shall cause no more damage than the circumstances of the case may require.

84. Power to transfer case-(1) The Tribunal may transfer any case or class of cases arising under this Act or any other law for the time being in force from any Revenue Officer to any other Revenue Officer competent to deal with it.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner or a Sub-Divisional Officer may transfer any case or class of cases arising under this Act or any other law for the time being in force for inquiry or decision from his own file or from the file of any Revenue Officer subordinate to him to the file of any other Revenue Officer subordinate to him competent to deal with such case or class of cases.

NOTES

Section 84- In sub-section (1) for the words "State Government" the word Tribunal was substituted vide Manipur Act No,13 of 1976.

85. Power to take evidence, summon witness, etc.(1) Every Revenue Officer not lower in rank than a Sub-Deputy Collector acting as a Revenue Court shall have power to take evidence and to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary, either as a party or as a witness or to produce any document, for the purpose of any inquiry which such officer is legally empowered to make; and all persons so summoned shall be bound to attend either in person or by an authorized agent as such officer may direct, and to produce such documents as may be required.

(2) Every summons shall be in writing, signed and sealed by the officer issuing it and shall be in such form and be served in such manner as may be prescribed.

86. Compelling attendance of witnesses.- If any person on whom a summons to attend as witness or to produce any document has been served fails to comply with the summons, the Officer by whom the summons has been issued under Section 85 may-

(a) issue a bail able warrant of arrest; or

(b) order him to furnish security for appearance; or

(c) impose upon him a fine not exceeding rupees twenty.

87. Hearing in absence of party- (1) If on the date fixed for hearing a case or proceeding, a Revenue Officer finds that a summon or notice was not served on any party due to the failure of the opposite party to pay the requisite process fees for such service, the case or proceeding may to pay the requisite process fees for such service, the case or proceeding may be dismissed for default of payment of such process fees.

(2) If any party to a case or proceeding before a Revenue Officer does not appear on the date fixed for hearing, the case or proceeding may be heard and determined in his absence or may be dismissed for default:

Provided that where there are more parties than one, and some of them do not appear, the Revenue Officer may, at the instance of the party or parties appearing, permit a case or proceeding to proceed in the same way as if all the parties had appeared, and make such order as he thinks fit.

(3) The party against whom any order is passed under sub-section (1) or (2) may apply, within thirty days from the date of such order, to have it set aside on the ground that he was prevented by sufficient cause from paying the requisite process fees or from appearing at the hearing, and the Revenue Officer may, after notice to the opposite party and after making such inquiry as he consider necessary, set aside the order passed.

NOTES

Section 87.- The proviso to sub-section (2) was inserted vide Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 published in the Manipur Gazette dated 24-5-1976.

88. Adjournment of hearing.- (1) A Revenue Officer may, from time to time, for reasons to be recorded, adjourn the hearing of a case or proceeding before him.

90. Use for force.- Where any order is passed under the provisions of this Act directing any person to deliver possession of land or directing the eviction of any person from land such order shall be executed by the competent authority in such manner as may be prescribed and it shall be lawful for such authority, in accordance with rules to be prescribed, to take such steps and use or cause to be used such force as may be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with the order.

91. Appearance before and applications to revenue officers.- All appearances before, applications to and acts to be done before, any Revenue Officer under this Act or any other law for the time being in force may be made or done by the parties themselves or by their authorized agents or by any legal practitioner:

Provided that any such appearance shall, if the Revenue Officer so directs, be made by the party in person:

Provided further that no legal practitioner shall be allowed to appear and conduct cases in proceeding under Chapter XI of the Act.

NOTES

Section 91.- The second provision to this section was inserted by Manipur Act No.21 of 1976.

92. Correction of error or omission- Any Revenue Officer by whom an order was passed in case or proceeding may, either on his own motion or on the application of a party, correct any error or omission not affecting a material part of the case or proceeding after such notice to the parties as he may consider necessary.

93. Appeals. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, an appeal shall lie from every original order passed under this Act,-

- (a) if such an order is passed by an officer subordinate to the Sub-Divisional Officer, to the Sub-Divisional Officer;
 - (b) if such an order is passed by an officer, to the Deputy Commissioner;
 - (c) if such an order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner to the Tribunal.
 - (d) if such an order is passed by an Assistant Survey and Settlement Officer, to the Survey and Settlement Officer or to a Revenue Officer notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette to be the appellate authority; and
 - (e) if such an order is passed by a survey and Settlement Officer, to the Director of Settlement and Land Records or to a Revenue Officer notified by the State Government in the official Gazette to be the appellate authority.
- (2) A second appeal shall lie against any order passed in first appeal,-
- (a) if such an order is passed under clause (a) of sub-section (1), to the Deputy Commissioner;
 - (b) if such an order is passed under clause (d) of sub-section (1), to the tribunal;
 - (c) if such an order is passed under clause (d) of sub-section (1), to the Director of Settlement and Land Records or a Revenue Officer notified by the State Government in the official Gazette to be the second appellate authority; and
 - (d) if such an order is passed under clause (e) of sub-section (1), to the Tribunal.

NOTES

Section 93.- In this section in clause (c) of sub-section (1), clause (b) and (d) of sub-section (2) the word 'tribunal' was substituted for the word 'Administrator' and in clause (e) of sub-section (1) the words "State Government" was substituted for the word "Administrator" by the Manipur (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1972.

94. Limitation of appeals.- (1) No appeal shall lie.-

(a) in the case of first appeal, after the expiry of thirty days from the date of the order appealed against; and

(b) in the case of a second appeal, after the expiry of sixty days from the date of the order appealed against.

(2) In computing the above periods, the time required to obtain copies of the order appealed against shall be excluded.

95. Revision- The Tribunal or the Deputy Commissioner may either on his own motion or on the application of any party, call for the records of any proceedings before any Revenue Officer subordinate to him for the records of any proceedings before any Revenue Officer subordinate to him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or the propriety of any order passed by such Revenue Officer, and may pass order in reference thereto as he thinks fit:

Provided that he shall not vary or reverse any order affecting any right between private person without having given to the parties interested notice to appear or be heard:

Provided further that no revision shall lie after the expiry of ninety days from the date of the order to be revised.

NOTES

Section 95.- In this section the second proviso was inserted and words “at any time” occurring before the words “either on his own.....” were omitted by Manipur Act No.13 of 1976.

Under the scheme of the Act normally Sub-Divisional Officer is subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner. But, the Sub-Divisional Officer of Imphal East was conferred with equal powers to perform the duties of Deputy Commissioner under Section 14(1) in allotting land as such the S.D.O could not be said to be subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner, so the latter cannot revise the orders of the former under this section. The section provides that the Tribunal (earlier Administrator) has got the powers revision (Abdul Jabar v. A. D.C, AIR 1969 Manipur 63).

Provision to this section is mandatory and as such, the affected party has a right to receive a notice, and in the absence thereof the order of revision must be held to be invalid. (Khwaitrakpam Ibomcha Singh v. Md. Abdul Bari, AIR 1975 Gau. 42).

96. Review of orders- A Revenue Officer may, either on his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors-in-office and pass such order in such reference thereto as he thinks fit:

Provided that a Revenue Officer subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner shall, before reviewing any order under this section, obtain the permission of the Deputy Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner shall, before reviewing any order passed by any of his predecessors-in-office, obtain the permission of his Tribunal,

(2) No order affecting any question of right between private persons shall be reviewed except on the application of a party to the proceedings or except after notice to the other party, and no application for review of such order shall be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the date of the order.

(3) No order shall be reviewed except on the following grounds, namely:

- (i) discovery of new and important matter of evidence; or
- (ii) some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record; or
- (iii) any other sufficient reason.

(4) For the purpose of this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall be deemed to be the successor -in-office of any Revenue Officer and to whom there is no successor in the district.

(5) An order which has been dealt with in appeal or on revision shall not be reviewed by any officer subordinate to the appellate or revisional authority.

NOTES

Section 96- The Revenue Officer under this section is also clothed with jurisdiction to review his order in addition to his inherent power to restore an appeal dismissed in default (Aribam Tuleshwar v Irengbam Yaima Singh, AIR Commissioner, AIR 1965 Manipur 3).

97. Stay of execution of orders.- (1) A Revenue Officer who has passed any order of his successor -in-office may, at any time before the expiry of the period prescribed for appeal, direct the stay of execution of such order for such period as he thinks fit provided that no appeal has been filed.

(2) Any authority before whom a case is pending in appeal or revision may direct the stay of execution of the order appealed from or under revision for such period as it may think fit.

(3) The Revenue Officer or other authority directing such stay of execution of any order may impose such condition, or order such security to be furnished, as he or it may think fit.

98. Power to make rules- (1) The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this part.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for-

(a) the manner of appointment of Revenue Officers. Survey Officers and Settlement Officers, and other village officers and servants, their powers and duties, the official seals, if any, to be used by them and the size and the size and description of the seals;

124. Restoration of possession of land in certain other cases.- (1) Where a tenant of any land has, on after the 6th day of March, 1966, surrendered or evicted, the competent authority may, suo motu or on application made by the tenant, restore him to possession of the land which he surrendered or from which he was evicted unless some other tenant not being a member of the landowner's family, had bona fide been admitted to possession of such land.

(2) The competent authority shall, before making an order under sub-section (1), make such inquiry as may be prescribed.

NOTES

Section 124.- In this section for the words and figures " the 6th day of March, 1956" the words and figures "the 6th day of March, 1966" were substituted by the the Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976.

125. Relief against termination of tenancy for act of waste.- Where a tenancy is sought to be terminated on the ground that the tenant has materially impaired the value or utility of the land for agricultural purposes, if the damage to the land admits of being repaired or if pecuniary compensation would afford to the land admits of being repaired or if pecuniary compensation would afford adequate relief, no proceeding for eviction shall lie against the tenant unless and until the landowner has served on the tenant a notice in writing specifying the damage complained of and the tenant has failed within a period of one year from the service of such notice to repair the damage or to pay compensation therefor.

126. Surrender of land by tenant.- (1) No surrender or abandonment by a tenant of any holding or any part thereof shall be valid unless such surrender or abandonment has been previously approved by the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) Any tenant desiring to surrender or abandon his holding or any part thereof or landowner of such holding may furnish information thereof in writing to the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) On receipt of information under sub-section (2), the Deputy Commissioner may, after making or causing to be made such inquiry and in such manner as may be prescribed by order, either approve or disapprove the proposed surrender or abandonment:

Provided that no surrender or abandonment shall be disapproved unless the tenant has been given an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(4) Where the surrender or abandonment of any holding or part thereof is approved by the Deputy Commissioner under this section, the holding or part thereof so surrendered or abandoned shall be settled by the Government:

(i) where such surrender or abandonment was made by a person belonging to a Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Caste, as the case may be; or

(ii) in a case where no person belonging to the Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Caste is available or willing to take settlement under clause (i), or in any other case, with the priority specified in Section 147-A,

(5) Every person on whom any holding or part thereof is settled under sub-section (4) shall hold the same as a tenant who surrendered or abandoned the holding or part thereof.

(6) where any tenant surrenders or abandons his holding or any part thereof without the previous approval of the Deputy Commissioner and the holding or part thereof so surrendered or abandoned is taken possession of by the landowner then, it shall be competent for the Deputy Commissioner (after giving the landowner a penalty of an amount not exceeding five hundred rupees per hectare of the land so surrendered or abandoned for each year or any part thereof during which the possession is continued.

NOTES

Section 126.- This section was substituted by Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976 and the original section read as follows:

“126. Surrender of land by tenant.- (1) After the commencement of this Act. No tenant shall surrender any land held by him as such, and no landowner shall enter upon the land surrendered by the tenant, without previous permission in writing of the competent authority.

(2) Such permission shall be granted if, after making such inquiry as may be prescribed, the competent authority is satisfied that the proposed surrender is bona-fide and in case the surrender is by a person who was holding the land as tenant immediately before the commencement of this Act, the permissible limit of the landowner concerned is not exceeded by such surrender, in other cases, the permission shall be refused.

(3) Where permission is refused in any case, and the tenant gives a declaration in writing relinquishing his rights in the land, the competent authority shall, in accordance with the rules made in his behalf, lease out the land to any other person who shall acquire all the rights of the tenant who relinquished his rights”.

It is not inconceivable that after the tenant surrenders the possession voluntarily the landlord occupies the land despite the knowledge that the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section interdict such a step. His entry into possessions of the land in such circumstances would be at the best prompt the Government into adopting measures to evict him, for the purpose of securing the ends mentioned in sub-section (3) However the physical act of his possession over the land cannot be ignored either by the court or by anybody else. (Chingangbam Ibomcha Singh V. Okram Tombi Singh, AIR 1970 Manipur 23).

127. Transfer of ownership of land to tenant.- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the ownership of any land which is in the occupation of a tenant at the commencement of Section 26 of the Manipur Revenue and Land Reforms (Amendment) Act 1975 shall stand transferred from the landowner thereof to the tenant with effect from such date as may be specified by notification in the Official Gazette, and the tenant shall become the owner of such land and be liable to pay land revenue therefore.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall apply to a tenant holding any land at the commencement of Section 26 of the Manipur Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1975 from a person under disability or from a public charitable or religious institution or local authority or a Co-operative Society registered under the Assam Co-operative Societies Act, 1949; as in force in the State of Manipur:

Provided that any lease granted in pursuance of this sub-Section, by a person under disability shall cease to be in force after the cessation of the disability.

Explanation- In this sub-section, the disability of a person shall cease under any of the circumstances specified in the Explanation to sub-section (2) of Section 106.

(3) within one year of the cessation of the disability referred to in sub-section (2), the landowner shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 119; be entitled to resume for personal cultivation the land held by the tenant not exceeding one-half of the area of such land:

provided that no resumption under this sub-section shall be made which would have the effect of leaving the tenant after such resumption with less than one hectare of land.

Section 127.- This section was substituted vide Manipur Act No.13 of 1976 and the original section read follows;

“ 127, Transfer of ownership of land to tenant.- Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the ownership of any land which is declared to be the non-resumable land of a tenant under Section 105 or Section 121 shall stand transferred from the date of such declaration, and the tenant shall become the owner of such land and be liable to pay land revenue thereof:

Provided that where, on an application made in this behalf by any person at any time before the declaration is made under Section 105 or under Section 121, the competent authority is satisfied that such person holds land not exceeding a family holding, whether as a landowner or otherwise, and that his income is derived mainly from such land, the competent authority may, be order, provided that the transfer of ownership of the land shall take effect on the expiry of a period of five years from the date of such declaration.”

128. Compensation to landowner- (1) In respect of every land the ownership of which stands transferred to the tenant under section 127, the landowner shall be entitled to compensation which shall consist of the aggregate of the following amount, this is to say,-

- (a) an amount equal to thirty times the full land revenue payable for the land or, if the land is held revenue-free or at a concessional rate, thirty times the amount of land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality;
- (b) the value of trees, if any planned by the landowner.

Explanation.- (1) Where any improvement has been made on the land at the expense of the landowner at any time subsequent to the settlement, the land revenue for the purpose of this section shall be the land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality.

(2) The land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality and the value of trees referred to in sub-section (1) shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

(3) Every landowner entitled to compensation under this section shall within a period of six months from the date of the notification referred to in Section 127, apply to the competent authority in the prescribed manner for determining the compensation.

NOTES

Section 128.- In sub-section (3) for the word “declaration” the word “Notification” was substituted by Manipur Act No.13 of 1976.

129. Payment of compensation to landowner.- (1) The compensation to which a landowner is entitled under Section 128 shall be paid to him by the Government in the instance, and it may be paid in cash, in lump sum or in annual installment not exceeding ten or in the form of bonds which may be negotiable but transferable.

(2) From the date of notification referred to in Section 127, the landowner shall be entitled to interest at rate of four per cent per annum on the compensation or such portion thereof as remain unpaid.

(3) Any mortgage of, or encumbrance on, the land of which the ownership is transferred to the tenant under Section 127 shall be a valid charge on the amount of compensation payable to the landowner.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) to (3), where the person entitled to compensation under Section 128 is a charitable or religious institution, the compensation shall, instead of being assessed under that section, be assessed as a perpetual annuity equal to the reasonable rent for the land, less the land revenue payable on such land. The amount so assessed shall be paid to such institution in the prescribed manner.

NOTES

Section 129.- In this section for the word “ declaration”, the word “notification” was substituted and for the figures and words “two half per cent” the words “four per cent” were substituted vide Manipur Act No.13 of 1976.

130. Tenant to pay compensation amount.- (1) Every tenant to whom ownership of any land has been transferred under section 127 shall be liable to pay to the Government in respect of that land compensation as determined under Section 128.

(2) The compensation shall be payable in cash, in lump sum or in such number of annual installments not exceeding twenty as may be prescribed. Interest at the rate of four per cent annum shall be payable on the compensation or such portion thereof as remains unpaid.

- (3) The compensation payable under this section shall be a charge on the land.
- (4) The compensation or any installment thereof shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

NOTES

Section 130.- In this section, for the figures and words “two half per cent” the words “four per cent” the words “four per cent” were substituted by Manipur ACT. 13 OF 1976.

131. issue of certificate to tenants.- when the compensation or the first installment of the compensation, as the case may be, has been paid by the tenant, the competent authority may suo motu and shall, on application made to it in this behalf, issue to the tenant a certificate in the prescribed form declaring him to be the owner of the land specified therein.

132. First option to purchase.- (1) If a landowner at any time intends to sell his land held by a tenant, he shall give notice in writing of his intention to such tenant and offer to sell the land to him. In case the letter intends to purchase the land, he shall intimate in writing his readiness to do so within two months from the date of receipt of such notice.

(2) If there is any dispute about the reasonable price payable for the land, either the landowner or the tenant may apply in writing to the competent authority for determining the reasonable price ; and the competent authority, after giving notice to the other party and to all other persons interested in the land after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, shall fix the reasonable price of the land which shall be the average of the price obtaining for similar lands in the locality during the ten years immediately preceding the date on which the application is made.

(3) The tenant shall deposit with the competent authority the amount of the price determined under sub-section (9) within such period as may be prescribed.

(4) On deposit of the entire amount of the reasonable price, the prescribed authority shall issue a certificate in the prescribed form to the tenant declaring him to be the purchase of the land; the competent authority shall also direct that the reasonable price deposited shall be paid to the landowner.

(5) If the tenant does not exercise the right of purchase in response to the notice given to him by the landowner under sub-section (1) or fails to deposit the amount of the price as required by sub-section (3), or such tenant shall forfeit his right of purchase, and the landowner shall be entitle to sell such land to any other person.

(6) The forfeiture of the right to purchase any land under this section shall not affect the other rights of tenant in such land.

(7) If a landowner sells his land in contravention of sub-section (1), the tenant, within two months from the date of his knowledge of such sale, may apply in writing to the competent authority expressing his intention to purchase the land at the price received by the landowner or at the reasonable price determined under sub-section (2).

The competent authority, after giving opportunity of being heard to the landowner, the purchaser and to any other person interested in the land, and if satisfied that the sale has been made in contravention of sob-section (1), may ask the tenant to deposit the amount of the price actually paid or the reasonable price whichever is less, within such period aa may be prescribed, and upon deposit of such amount by the tenant the competent authority shall pass an order allowing the application of pre-emption and thereupon the provision of sub-sections (4) to (6) shall be applicable mutates matandis.

NOTES

Section 132.- The sub-section (7) was inserted vide Manipur Act No. 13 of 1976. The right conferred by this section is for the personal benefit of the tenant, while the penalty mentioned in Section 164 is conceived in the interest of public policy. The right and penalty provided by this section are mutually exclusive both stand side (Khaidem Tamphajao Singh v Hijam Ningol, AIR 1971 Manipur 36).
